OVERVIEW SIGHTSEEING TOURS AND DIRECTIONS TO DINNER LOCATION

Wednesday, 23 September, 2026

After the presentation of workshop results and the closing remarks, conference participants have the chance to join one of four guided “sightseeing” tours of some of the highlights Freie Universität Berlin has to offer.

“Botanic Garden Tour”

led by Thorsten Laute – Director of Horticulture Botanic Garden

pick-up location: wooden coyote statue “Trickster’s Plan” outside “Holzlaube” – 4:10 pm – participants of the tour will be accompanied to the entrance of the Botanic Garden (Königin-Luise-Platz, 14195 Berlin) (approx. 15 minutes)
Starting time: 4:30

This tour takes you to the “green jewel” of Dahlem which beckons like an oasis from southwest Berlin. Along with the Botanical Museum, it is one of the world's largest and most important botanical gardens with a 300-year tradition.

The tour will end at the entrance of the Botanic Garden (“Königin-Luise-Platz”). Participants of the Conference Dinner will be walked to restaurant “Eierschale” (engl. “Eggshell”), approx. 12 minutes from the Botanic Garden.

“Biodiversity Building Tour”

led by Dr. Tobias Otte – Scientific Coordinator Institute of Biology pick-up location: Rudi-Dutschke-Weg outside “Holzlaube” – 4:15 pm – particpants of the tour will be accompanied to the entrance of the biodiversity building (Königin-Luise-Str. 28-30, 14195 Berlin)

Starting time: 4:30 pm

The "Biodiversity Building Tour" allows participants to explore the newly-built pentagon-shaped biodiversity building, which embodies sustainability in both scientific and architectural aspects. It is one of the first research buildings in Germany to meet the Gold Standard under the Sustainable Building Rating System for Federal Buildings.

After the tour, participants of the Conference Dinner will be accompanied to metro station (“U-Bahn) “Dahlem Dorf”. There, you will be able to take the metro U3 (direction “Warschauer Str.”) towards “Podbielskiallee” and walk approx. 1 min to Restaurant “Eierschale” (engl. “Eggshell”) where the dinner takes place.

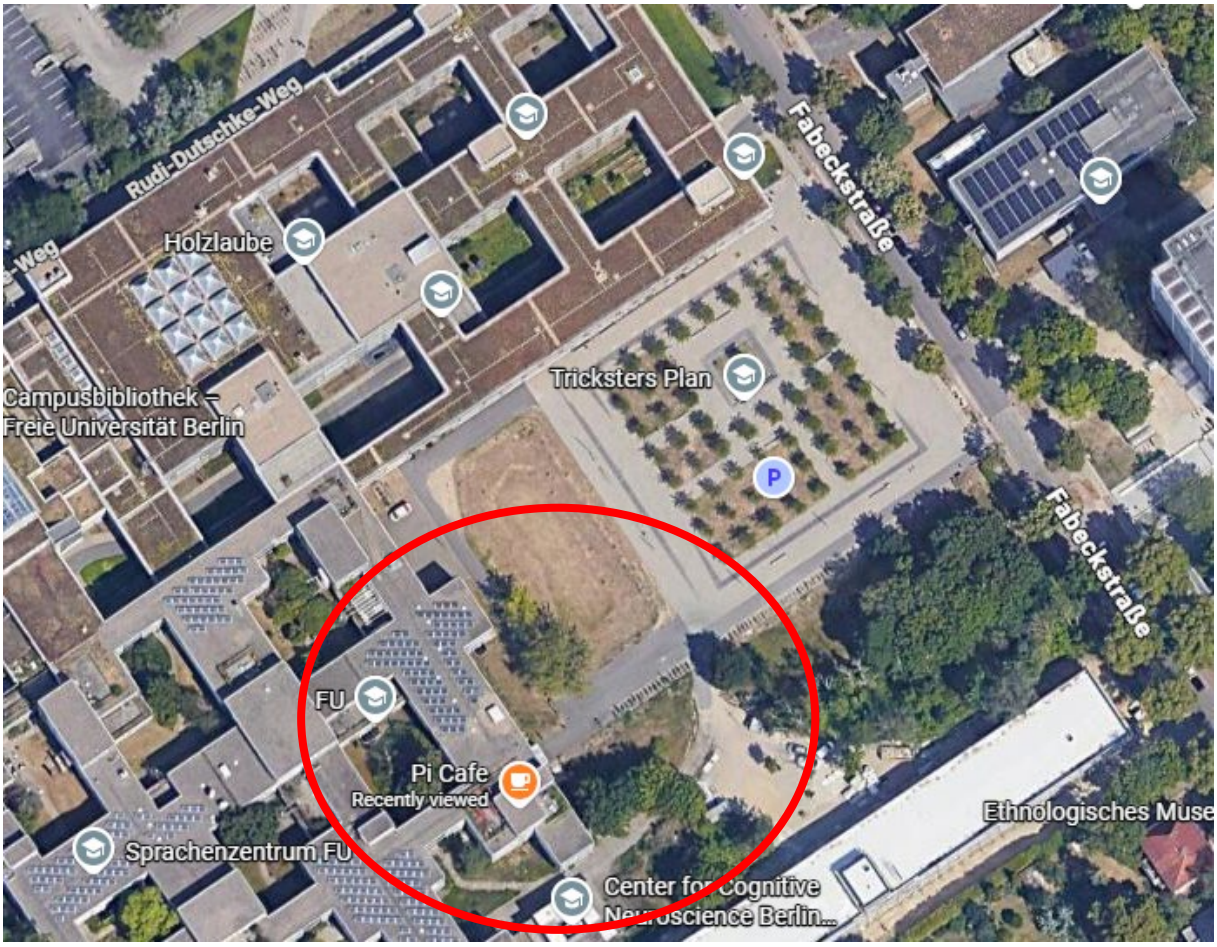

“Campus Tour”

led by Kirsten Schmiester – Una.Futura Project Manager

pick-up location: Entrance to “Silberlaube” (Fabeckstr. 29) – 4:15 pm
Starting time: 4:30

The Campus Tour takes you around FUB’s Dahlem campus. On your way, you will hear about the history of Freie Universität, visit some of its most important building, and climb to the rooftop of one of the university buildings to see FUB’s own solar panels.

The tour will end at the metro station (U-Bahn) “Freie Universität – Thielplatz”. Particpants of the Confernce Dinner will be able to take the metro U3 (direction “Warschauer Str.”) towards “Podbielskiallee” and walk approx. 1 min to Restaurant “Eierschale” (engl. “Eggshell”) where the dinner takes place.

“SupraFAB Tour”

led by Achim Wiedekind – Scientific Coordinator of SupraFAB

pick-up location: Chemistry Building Fabeckstr. 34 – 4:15 pm – participants of the tour will be accompanied to the SupraFAB facility (Altensteinstr. 23a, 14195 Berlin) (approx. 10 minutes)
Starting time: 4:30 pm

Throughout the tour, participants will explore and learn more about the Supramolecular Functional Architectures at Biointerfaces research facility (SupraFAB) that specialises in fundamental research into the properties and functional mechanisms of supramolecular structures at (bio)interfaces.

The tour will end at the exit of the SupraFAB. Participants of the Conference Dinner will be accompanied to metro station (“U-Bahn) “Dahlem Dorf”. There, you will be able to take the metro U3 (direction “Warschauer Str.”) towards “Podbielskiallee” and walk approx. 1 min to Restaurant “Eierschale” (engl. “Eggshell”) where the dinner takes place.

Dinner Location:

Eierschale Dahlem
Podbielskiallee 50, 14195 Berlin-Zehlendorf

The Conference Dinner will take place at “Eierschale”, an iconic restaurant and former Jazz Club in Berlin Dahlem. The restaurant can look back on a 70-year long history and has welcomed famous musicians such as Louis Armstrong and Ella Fitzgerald.
The restaurant is right next to metro station “Podbielskiallee”.
