Sustainability in Higher Education: Between Transformation and Vibe-Shifts

POSTER SESSION - FORUM FOR ALL PARTICIPANTS

Facilitation: Caroline Paulick-Thiel, Politics for Tomorrow

To ensure a smooth poster session on Wednesday, September 23, please read the following preparation guidelines.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact Moritz Zöllner of our conference team: events@nachhaltigkeit.fu-berlin.de.

Who can submit posters?

We invite selected contributors to submit a poster showcasing their research, teaching, and/or campus projects.

What content can be presented?

Please include current research, teaching, and/or campus projects that reference the call for proposals, including your results.

What formal requirements should be taken into account?

All posters must be submitted and presented in English.

Please submit the following details to provide concise information about you and the project you are going to present.

Content:

- Title and heading: short, concise, and focused on content
- Profile: Short profile about yourself, describing your institution, position and your relation to the project you are presenting
- Introduction: relevance of the topic, research questions and hypotheses (if applicable), theoretical background, objectives, target audience, theory-practice transfer (if applicable), Which ideas, strategies, goals and measures have been applied?
- Methodological approach or data material, Didactic methods (if applicable)
- Relevant results (if available): tables, graphs, and diagrams can be helpful
- Discussion & conclusion: summary of the most important findings, conclusions, possible limitations of the project or key challenges, study or experiment (if applicable), further research or applications (if applicable), Lessons Learnt and Success Factors
- References and sources: before submission, ensure that you have the appropriate rights to all texts and images.
- Contact details: Provide the authors or contact persons, and a link to the website if applicable.

Format:

- Create posters in minimum DIN A0 size (portrait format). The size of our poster boards is 115 x 145 cm. Posters should not exceed 115 cm (width) x 145 cm (height).
- Font size: Please use a font size that is easy to read.

Important notes:

- We kindly request that you print your poster before the conference and present it when you register on Day 1 at the registration desk.
- We kindly ask that you submit your poster as a PDF file to us by September 7. This will allow us to group you with other presenters accordingly and with your agreement to publish it on our conference website afterwards.
- Poster mounting is planned by the conference team on Tuesday, September 22, prior to the morning session on Wednesday.
- The poster session will take place on Wednesday morning, September 23, at 9:00 a.m.

Further information on the Sustainability in Higher Education: Between Transformation and Vibe-Shifts conference is available on our website.