

IDB Group Summer 2026 Internship Program

Opportunities for Impact

Program Overview

The IDB Group's 2026 HQ Summer Internship Program offers a two-month paid opportunity in Washington, D.C. for undergraduate and graduate students. Interns gain hands-on experience working on projects that impact Latin America and the Caribbean while collaborating with professionals across the organization. Join our upcoming information session to learn more about the program and application process.

Click here to view our 62 available internship positions.

 In Washington D.C.

Summer	Winter
June 16 – August 15 Applications* March	January 16 – March 15 Applications* October

*For Washington DC: We provide assistance with visa applications, but do not grant visas to the USA.

Program Timeline

Requirements

- Citizens of any of our 48 member countries (no nationality restrictions for IDB Invest)
- Availability to work within predefined dates
- Actively enrolled as an Undergraduate (2nd year completed) or Graduate (50% completed)
- First job at the IDB Group
- No relatives working at the IDB Group

Required Documents for Application Submission

- Resume (CV)
- Official University Letter
- Official Academic Transcripts

Impact & Growth

- 182 former interns are now a part of the IDB Group workforce
- 7 former interns now serve in Executive & Managerial roles
- Average conversion rate from intern to consultant is 20%